"Pudhinam Silk Sarees"

Co-optex launched a series of designs in thread work in Silk sarees Kancheepuram and Arani, that was popularly called "Pudhinam sarees. It was felt that the customers who had no particular liking for heavy Zari and strong buttas in the body of the Sarees, yet wanted to adorn themselves with Silk sarees, didn't have much of an option or variety. It was with this idea that a Series of thread work Sarees with traditional motifs called " Pudhinam" pudhumaigalin thoguppu) meaning a refreshing collection of novel designs was launched. This was customers to appreciate the beauty The exquisite collection of Pudhinam Silk Sarees with traditional motifs are produced by the skilled weavers Kancheepuram and Arni areas. The speciality of these sarees is the borders, buttas, pallu woven with thread work only using Pure silk yarn. These sarees are produced with the incorporation of traditional motifs contemporary style hence, the name implies

KrishnamachariSrikkanth was conferred with the Lifetime Achievement

With Chennai's fightback when besieged by floods forming the motif for tales of inspiration in sports and life by various speakers, Krishnamachari Srikkanth was conferred the Lifetime Achievement award by the Rotary Club of Madras, T. Nagar, on Monday.

Former India golfer Brandon D'Souza was given the Vocational Excellence award. Vijay Tennis great Amritraj was the chief guest on the occasion.

AformerTestcaptain and a prominent member of the triumphant Indian cricket team in the 1983 Prudential World Cup, Srikkanth lauded Rotary Club of Madras, T. Nagar, for its stellar work in reaching out to the poor, and added that his life would not be complete unless he gave something back to the society.

Talking about the deluge, Srikkanth said: "Every individual in Chennai outstanding in responding to the crisis. The way we got together to do something for the people without expecting anything was a lesson for everyone."

He thanked Dr. Mohan Rajan, who read the citation, for calling him "entertaining, innovative and explosive", and said: "In the old days, the way cricket was played, perhaps I was a gamechanger."

Srikkanth said biggest achievement for him in cricket was being a part of the World Cup-winning side in 1983, and then heading the selection Dhoni's panel when Dashers repeated the feat in 2011. In a captivating speech, Amritraj recalled how his mother transformed a frail child with health complications into the champion athlete that he eventually became. It was a story of belief and conviction.

"Sports teaches you more about yourself you would than otherwise ever get to know," said Amritraj. "When you delve into those moments when you are asking for the impossible, you learn more about yourself."

The former India Davis Cup captain announced a donation of Rs. 5 lakh from the Vijay Amritraj Foundation to Rajan Eye Care that works in cohesion with the Rotary Club of Madras, T. Nagar. D'Souza dwelt on the difficulties of taking insisted upon parental up golf in the early 80s in India when the game was in the backwaters of the nation's sporting consciousness.

"For me, my work [playing golf] was my passion. Ι chased my passion and my dreams," he said.

The winners of the Rotary T. Nagar-LNT golf tournament, that raised money for the flood victims in Chennai, received their trophies. Venkatraman, Ravi president, Rotary Club of Madras, T. Nagar, highlighted the club's various initiatives for those in need.

All India Abacus & Mental Arithmetic competitions
